Dear Friends,
We are deeply grateful to all of you for your outpouring of love, support, friendship and caring after the passing of our beloved father, Rabbi Arnold Goodman.
To those who came to pay a shiva call, deep gratitude. Your presence healed.
To those who wrote cards, letters and emails, deep gratitude. Your words consoled.
To those who gave tzedakah to the Temple and other Jewish organizations in our father's memory, deep gratitude. Your generosity will strengthen our shul and organizations and the good we all do, and our father deeply believed, with every fiber of his being, in the good that shuls and other Jewish communal organizations do.
While we know that no one gets to live forever, when our father passed, our hearts were broken.
Death is so real and final. In the face of ultimate and ineluctable reality, your many gestures of love renewed our belief in the infinite blessing that is life. Thank you for that gift.
With deep affection and gratitude,
Wes and Shira
